INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. #5612.

Margaret E. Martin being first duly sworn deposes and says:

My name is Margaret E. Martin, and I live in Quitman, Tex. I am 60 years old. I claim my Cherokee Indian blood through my father, James Brown. I was born in Rusk County, Tex. My father was born in Ga. but I do not know in what county. He was born in 1815, died in 1865 at the age of 50. He left Ga. and went to Miss. when he was about 4 years old. He came from Miss. to Tex. but I do not know just how old he was, only that he was grown. My father got his Indian blood through his father, who was always called Black Jack Brown. I have been told that he was also called James Brown the same as my father, but I am not sure that that was his name. My grandfather was born in Ga. and died in Miss. but I do not know the Counties. My grandmother has often told me that my grandfather was an Indian, but she never told me the exact amount of the blood. He might have been either a 1/2 or a full blood. I never saw my grandfather, but my mother has often told me that he was an Indian. He never said that any of my ancestors had ever received any money from the Government on account of their Indian blood. I have only white and Indian blood in my veins.

Margaret Ellen Martin,

Quitman, Wood Co., Tex.

Madam:-

Relative to your application #5612 for a share of the money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, in which you claim Indian blood by right of your father, James Crowe, will you please state whether or not your father was a full-blood Cherokee Indian. If so, why was he not enrolled in 1891, and, as you state you were born in 1907, why were you not enrolled in 1911? Please furnish the names of your grandfather and your grandmother on your father's side, stating where they were born, and where they resided in 1891, and whether they were full-blood Cherokee Indians. If they were not full-blood Cherokee Indians, did they have any Negro blood? If so, on which side? Was your father at any time enrolled, and, if so, under what name, because, as you state he was an Indian, he should have been enrolled in 1891, when the Cherokee Indians were enrolled. Was your mother a White woman or a Negro? Please furnish this office with all the information you can regarding your father and your father's parents.

Respectfully,

LBD/AIL

There is a grand child of Joe Bean living by the name of Charlie Downing. The mother of Charlie Downing was Nancy Downing, nee Bean, a daughter of Joe Bean, #5632. The Gdn of Charlie Downing is Ned Wilson, P. O. Gideon Okla. I think that Ned Wilson was appointed the Guardian of this child about 4 months ago. (Dec. 1908) The mother of this child died when Charlie Downing was a little baby and Joe Bean raised him. I do not know whether Joe Bean ever made application for Charlie Downing. I never heard who made application for this minor. He is now living with the children of Joe Bean, of whom I am Guardian.

Madam:

Replying to your letter of January 16, 1910, you are advised that you were not enrolled with your mother and minor brother and sister for the reason that you did not file a separate application, as all married children were required to do.

As you did not file an exception to my report within the time prescribed your claim, of course, could not be given any further consideration.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

NLC.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS, EASTERN CHEROKEE ENROLLMENT,
601 OURAY BUILDING,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Sir:

Replying to your letter of recent date relative to the Eastern Cherokee enrollment, you are advised that since filing my report of May 28, 1909, with the Court of Claims, the matter has passed entirely beyond my control.

My report sets forth why, in my opinion, the claims admitted should be admitted and those rejected should be rejected. The matter now rests with the Court and the only way that my decision can be reviewed is by filing exceptions in accordance with the order of the Court of June 10, 1909.

No blank forms will be furnished for the filing of these exceptions.

Under the order of the Court of Claims of April 29, 1907, it was necessary for claimants to file an application prior to August 31, 1907, and to prove that they were Eastern Cherokee Indians by blood, descended from Indians who were recognized parties to the Treaties of 1835-6, and 1846, and to further prove that they were not Old Settler Cherokees, and that they, or their immediate ancestors, had not since the Treaty of 1846 affiliated with any tribe or band of Indians other than the Cherokee Nation.

The application about which inquiry is made in your letter was rejected because the claimant failed to bring himself within these requirements.

Very respectfully,

GUION MILLER,

Special Commissioner.

I am 60 years old; I know Dave Leaf and His wife Jennie Leaf; Dave's minor children are Lizzie, Ool-skas-te and Leaf Leaf or Oo-gah-law-gah Leaf. Dave Leaf is a Night Hawk; Jennie Leaf has three minor children, all boys, O-gah-nuh or Groundhog Six, Gah-le-nuh-duh Mo Laughlin, that is the name he is known by at school, and he is now about 15 years old; (Her youngest child is Tin-cup Six; ## Humphrey is the other name of Tincup and if the Daws Commission have Mo Laughlin by that name it is a mistake. These three children are all living with Dave C. Leaf; (Dave Leaf is enrolled by the Daws Commission, under the name of Dave Constitution, #19465. Lizzie, #19467, Oo-le-skaste, #18628, Coe-wee- scoo-wee is a child of the brother of Dave Constitution/ De-lan-de-skee Six was the father of the children of Jennie Leaf. His english name was Landy Six: I think he died before the enrollment by the Daws Commission. Dave and Jennie have been living together since about 1901 or 1902. Jennie only has the three children I have named, that are now living; Jennie and Landy Six had a girl that died ten or twelve years ago; I have known Jennie all her life and I never knew of her having any other children than the three I have named and the one which died, whose name I do not now recall; I have been around Jennie home within the last week and they have no other children living with them, other than those I have named.

G. W. Ballard, --- being duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is G. W. Ballard. My age 55 years. I was born in Delaware District, Oklahoma. I get Indian blood from both parents. My people are Cherokees. I got the strip payment. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission and got my allotment. My mother's name is Sarah Ballard. She was also enrolled by the Dawes Commission and got her allotment of land. She got the broad and strip payments. She is 78 years old. In 1851 she was living just where she is now, Delaware District. I do not think she was married in 1851. She may have been married in 1851. Her name was Arthur before marriage. I don't know whether she was enrolled in 1851, or whether she drew money. She has received money but not Old Settler money. They claimed they were not Old Settlers. (Sarah Ballard 367 Del.) She had a brother George, Freeman, and a sister Patsy Arthur; also Nancy. If they were not enrolled it may be that they did not look after the matter. I do not think Lucy and Nancy ~~xxxxxx~~ Arthur were married in 1851. My mother's father's name was Felix Arthur. I do not know any brothers he had. My mother's mother's name was Sabina Arthur. ~~xxxxxx~~ Her name was Ward before she married Arthur. I do not know whether she was enrolled. Nancy Kiddier is my aunt and a sister to my mother. My father was Jack Ballard. I don't know whether he had any other name. He lived in Delaware District. (12 Dis.) I do not know whether he lived in any other District. He had a brother Arch Ballard. He lived in Delaware. (11 Dis.) He had a brother Tom Ballard (half-brother). He moved around a great deal. Minerva was one of my father's sisters. He also had a brother named Samuel. (367 Del.) I don't know my father's father's name. I do know my father's mother's name, and think it was Annie Ballard. (346 Del.) I have always associated with the Cherokee Indians. I think my people moved here in 1845 and they went back at one time. I think it was 1845 when they came out to stay. I think my mother came out in 1845. I don't know about my father's side. I do not know of any of my people drawing Old Settler money.

Madam:-

Relative to your application #5684 for a share of the money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, in which you claim by right of being an heir on your father's side, and yet you state that your mother is living. Please furnish this office with the name of your mother--that is, has she any other name than that of Betty Wolf? If she is a Cherokee Indian, has she filed an application in this office? If so, do you know the number of her application? If not an Indian, why do you not claim through her? I cannot find the name of your grandfather, John Wolf, on the roll of 1851, nor the name of your father, Sam Wolf on the roll of 1851. Please furnish this office with all the information you have, in order to throw some light upon your claim.

Respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

December 27, 1907.

Lula Johnson,

Stillwell, Okla.

Sir:-

Relative to your application #5686 for a share of the money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee. I will state that I cannot find the names that you have given of your father and mother and your grandparents on either side on the roll of 1881. Were your grandparents on your father's side known as "Old Settlers"? Were your grandparents on your mother's side known as "Old Settlers"? You state that your father, Ellis Johnson, was on the roll of 1881. I cannot find the name of Ellis Johnson or under the Indian name you gave him. You state that your father is living. Will you please furnish this office with the number of her application if she has filed for participation in this fund? If you will consult some of your relatives and get the Indian name and have the names spelled as nearly as possible as they were spelled in 1881, you will greatly assist this office in tracing your connections on the roll. The name of your grandfather, Ellis Johnson, does not appear upon the roll. Please take particular pains in getting the names spelled as nearly correct as possible. Also find out where and when your grandparents were enrolled.

Respectfully,

LBD/ALL

Special Commissioner.
